EXTRAORDINARY FIGURE OF A SOGDIAN HORSE GROOM.

Origin: China. Shaanxi or Henan province.

Dynasty: Tang dynasty (618-907).

Date: Dated according to attached Oxford Thermoluminescence report.

Technique: Low-fired, ferrous clay with grey slip, largely preserved, cold pigment painting and partial gilding.

Description: Standing in wide sidestep with his right hand raised. With both hands, he probably held formerly the reins of the animal. He is dressed in a short caftan over tight-fitting leggings. The wide open collar forms a broad lapel, on which painted flower motifs are still preserved. His facial features are clearly individually formed and painted showing a powerful masculine expression. On the head, he wears a characteristic, high headgear, which is painted with patterns and decorated with gold leaf.

Measurement: Height 51cm, width ca. 25cm, depth ca. 12cm.

Provenance:

-1997 acquired at Artcade Gallery, Van der Kindere, Brussels.

-Estate of a Rhenish private collection.

Expert report:

Thermoluminescence report of 29.3.1997: TL Oxford report 866e78.
