LARGE CERAMIC FIGURINE OF AN EAGLE OWL ON STACK OF BOOKS AS A LAMP.

Wien. Kunstkeramische Fabrik A. Förster & Co.

Date: Around 1905.

Maker/Designer: Model by Ferdinand Doblinger.

Technique: Ceramic, enriched in colours. Eyes made of plastic.

Description: Large, slightly grim-looking eagle owl, crouching on two books placed on top of each other. Eyes worked à jour and underlaid with slightly opaque plastic to allow the light of the interior lighting to shine through.

Measurement: Height 82cm.

Mark: On the backside inscribed 'Förster Deposé 216', minted. On the upper side of the top book inscribed 'Doblinger 903' in black.

Electrified.

Estimate: 4.000 € - 6.000 €
