

Lot 792

Auction Art & Interior

Date 25.02.2021, ca. 10:28

VASE WITH LADIES TEACHING BOYS.

Origin: China.

Dynasty: Qing dynasty (1644-1911).

Date: Guangxu Period (1875-1908).

Technique: Porcelain painted underglaze blue and with wucan.

Description: The circumferential representation "San niang jiao zi" shows three ladies at a table teaching boys to read, one boy is playing with a bunny on wheels, three others are busy with a large grasshopper. On the shoulder broken ice and camellia branches on the short neck.

Measurement: H.25.5cm, Ø 20cm.

Mark: The vase is flat underneath with turning grooves and a location written in ink.

Condition B.

Provenance:

Collection Heinrich Aigner (1919-2005), Southern Germany. Acquired locally in the 1960s-70s

.

Estimate: 800 € - 1.000 €; Hammer: 1.700 €
