

Lot 818

Auction Art & Interior

Date 25.02.2021, ca. 10:46

A PAIR OF MOON FLASKS WITH SCHOLARS.

Origin: China.

Date: Before 1900.

Technique: Heavy porcelain painted in famille verte.

Description: The round vase body with a narrow neck, to which two bats are attached as handles, on a high, oval high foot ring. On the vases in round cartouches on each side a different representation, which is mirrored on the other vase. Three gentlemen are shown in a garden landscape around a rock table beneath large pines. Around the medallions a frame with flowers, the sides of the vase with connected swastika and red peonies.

Measurement: H. 38.5cm, w. 27cm, th. 7.5cm.

Condition B/C. One with a large crack at the opening. Restored at the handles.

Provenance:

-Elinor Vicomtesse de Milhau, née Hölterhoff, by inheritance until today in a private collection in Cologne.

-The pieces were acquired in France before 1900.

Estimate: 1.800 € - 2.500 €; Hammer: 2.200 €
