

Lot 901

Auction Art & Interior

Date 25.02.2021, ca. 11:42

TWO CHAWAN IN KOREAN STYLE.

Origin: Japan or Korea the Japanese market.

Dynasty: Edo period.

Date: 17th/18th c. or later.

Description: a) Goshomaru chawan from ferrous, dark red brown stoneware with grey whitish glaze, finely crazed. The steep wall in the upper part a bit deformed and with grooves from turning below the offset lip. The lower part faceted. The glaze with strong pink Amamori spots. Crack with old gold lacquer repair. H.7.2cm, Ø 12.2cm. Wooden box with inscription inside the lid: Totoan (Kuroda Ryoji). Purple silk bag.

b) Ichimonji chawan on high flared and cut (warikodai) foot. At the body a slice of the lip from the lower bowl of the stack when fired. H.9cm, Ø 13.6cm. Unsigned wooden box.

Condition A/B.

Provenance:

-Estate Andreas Holter.

-Formerly collection Ulrich Vollmer, acquired in the 1990s in Japan.

Estimate: 100 € - 200 €; Hammer: 400 €
