IMPORTANT NETSUKE OF CHÔKARÔ SENNIN WITH GOURD.

Origin: Japan.

Date: Late 18th/early 19th c.

Technique: Ivory with shiny, amber yellow patina. The figure might be stained a bit.

Description: Standing, dressed in a wide robe with leaf collar and apron. Knotted to his belt he has a gourd, to which he points with his left hand. He has raised his right hand and holds a short staff behind his neck. This staff once belonged to a fly whisk, from which probably a part of the hair has broken off. Here was later very skilfully carved over with a leaf, no patina is found here either.

Measurement: H.9.7cm.

Signature: Signed on the back: Nobukatsu.
