

Lot 1024

Auction Art & Interior

Date 25.02.2021, ca. 13:05

RARE SET OF FOUR THANGKA WITH EMANATIONS OF PADMASAMBHAVA (GURU RINPOCHE).

Origin: Tibet.

Date: 18th c.

Technique: Pigments on fabric. Mounted as hanging scroll, mostly with curtain.

Description: The paintings show four of the eight emanations of the great teacher:

- a) Pema Gyalpo (Lotus Prince, 1.), with a rattle drum in his hands,
- b) Nyima Oser (Sun Ray, 2.), dressed with a tiger skin as loincloth,
- c) Shakya Senge (King of the Shakyas, 5.) in the form of the Buddha with alms bowl,
- d) Pema Jungne (Lotus Born, 7.), with the robes and headgear of the teacher. Each sitting on a lotus pedestal with the name inscribed in front in Tibetan.

Measurement: Complete size each ca. 95x54 cm, each ca. 45x38cm.

Seal: The paintings are consecrated on the back in Tibetan (Om, Ah, Hum). Some more labels on the back.

Condition B. Browned, rubbed, brittle and with tears, traces of use.

Provenance:

German private collection. Acquired 1981/82 at Schoettle Ostasiatica in Stuttgart.

Estimate: 1.500 € - 1.800 €; Hammer: 1.700 €