

Lot 269

Auction    Decorative Art

Date        01.06.2021, ca. 12:39

Preview     27.05.2021 - 10:00:00 bis
30.05.2021 - 18:00:00

---

ELEGANT TEAPOT WITH DRAGON.

Origin: Sino-Burmese or Sino-Siamese.

Date: 19th c.

Technique: Silver in repoussé with wire, a sphere of jade in the dragons mouth and eyes probably from ruby.

Description: The small teapot has an unusually long and elegant spout springing from a makara head. The handle in the shape of a lively dragon also swinging out. The spherical body is decorated with flower tendrils and two medallions: one with a scholar accompanied by deer beneath trees, the second with an elephant and a monkey. The foot in the form of lotus, the slightly domed lid with a double vajra and the knob in the form of a bud.

Measurement: 506g. H.13 cm, l.28.5cm.

Condition B.

Estimate: 1.000 € - 1.200 €

---