"Technically and compositionally on the same high level that distinguishes almost all Schadow students, Nerenz's works stand out for their particular attention to detail, combined with an extraordinary mastery of the representation of materiality". This is how Siegfried Weiß describes Wilhelm Nerenz from Berlin in the encyclopaedia of the Düsseldorf school of painting. He followed his teacher Wilhelm Schadow to the Düsseldorf Academy in 1833-36, where the small and extremely fine panel shown here was created during these years.

Estimate: 5.000 € - 8.000 €; Hammer: 4.300 €
