

Lot 33

Auction Decorative Art

Date 18.05.2022, ca. 14:24

Preview 13.05.2022 - 10:00:00 bis
16.05.2022 - 18:00:00

LOUIS XV PENDULUM CLOCK ON CONSOLE WITH FLORAL DÉCOR.

Le Roy, Julien. Paris

Date: Around 1740-50.

Technique: Firegilt bronze applications, coloured lacquer decoration. Enamel dial.

Description: Curved console richly decorated with volutes. High rectangular, curved corpus with corresponding applications. Console, case and top with Vernis Martin décor in the form of fine polychrome floral paintings on red background. Round dial consisting of twelve cartouches with Roman numerals and Arabic minuterie, grouped around a round centrepiece. Square shaped 14-day pendulum movement, thread suspension and strike on overhead bell.

Measurement: Height incl. console approx. 150cm, width 58cm.

Mark: On dial inscr. "Julien LeRoy, Paris" (presumably Julien, son of Pierre, working 1713-1759, Tardy p.394).

Enclosed: P&K.

Provenance:

Collection "Haus Lüttgens", Aachen.

Literature:

Tardy: La Pendule Française, vol.1, Paris 1949. Comparable pendulum clocks see p.150, 152, 159.

Estimate: 7.000 € - 9.000 €; Hammer: 6.800 €
