

Lot 36

Auction Decorative Art

Date 16.11.2022, ca. 11:27

Preview 11.11.2022 - 10:00:00 bis
14.11.2022 - 18:00:00

TWO-FLAME CANDLESTICK WITH LIGHT SHADE.

Schott, Johann Martin. Frankfurt a.M.

Date: Around 1822.

Technique: Silver. Paper.

Description: Ascending round foot with palmette decor, the smooth shaft with two mobile candlestick arms. Capital-shaped top with a sphere finial. The shade is adjustable in height by a screw. On the base engraving: "Dem Herrn Pr: und Paedagogiarchen Dr.F:C:Rumpf bey der Feyer seines silbernen Amts=Jubilaeums" (For the Mister Pr. and paedagogian Dr.F:C: Rumpf on the occasion of the festivities for his silver work-jubilee) . A quotation from Seneca's Letters on Ethics to Lucilius is engraved on the opposite side (Ep:83 Senec). On the edge of the foot: "von dessen dankbaren Schuelern der ersten Classe Gressen(?) 25 ten September 1823" (from his grateful students of the first class Gressen(?) 25th of September 1823).

Weight: Ca. 915g.

Measurement: Height approx. 41,5cm, width 24cm.

Mark: Inspection mark Frankfurt on the Main with 13 (Scheffler Hesse no.152), maker's mark Johann Martin Schott (1815-1822, ibid. no.548).

Paper covering renewed.

Estimate: 2.000 € - 2.500 €
