SNUFF BOX WITH UNUSUAL FIGURE STAFFAGE.

Presumably Meissen.

Date: 18th/early 19th century.

Technique: Porcelain, decorated with colors, silver mounting.

Description: Small snuff box with curved body and hinged lid. The wall with blue scale design and rocaille reserves. The reserves on the lid, the front and back are filled with fine figural scenes that allude to the Commedia dell'Arte. Some of the groups of figures are depicted in park-like landscapes, some are wearing masks. On the top there is even a small dog dressed with a tricorne hat and a patterned coat. On the inside of the lid a (probably) mythological scene with couple.

Measurement: 5x8x5,5cm.

Mark: Silver mounting marked, presumably Hanau.

Estimate: 2.500 € - 3.500 €
