

Lot 56

Auction	Decorative Art
---------	----------------

Date	16.11.2022, ca. 11:41
------	-----------------------

Preview	11.11.2022 - 10:00:00 bis 14.11.2022 - 18:00:00
---------	--

SALT CELLAR WITH FEMALE FIGURINE.

Italy.

Date: Around 1480-1500.

Maker/Designer: Bologna or Ferrara.

Technique: Faience with white glaze and decor in green and yellow with dark contours.

Description: On a plinth with three curved sides, the salt bowl on an openwork stand, held by a young woman with long curls and an aureola.

Measurement: Height 19,5cm, width 14,5cm.

Mark: Without detectable marks.

Provenance:

Haus Lüttgens, Aachen.

A figural inkwell in the collection of the Victoria & Albert Museum in London is very comparable in expression and color choice (Inv.-Nr.C.2281-1910) and was used as a comparison for dating and origin.

Estimate: 1.000 € - 1.200 €; Hammer: 800 €
