EXTRAVAGANT VENETIAN STYLE ARM CHAIR.

Italy.

Date: 19th century.

Maker/Designer: In the manner of Andrea Brustolon.

Technique: Carved walnut. Grey upholstery.

Description: Above four strutted feet with a lion's head, two fully sculpted boys holding the armrests. The upper end of each armrest is designed as a putto resting on his back.

Measurement: 70x90x81cm.

This armchair is worked in the style of the sculptor Andrea Brustolon (1662-1732), who worked mainly in Venice and Rome. His sculptural furnitures were in great demand among his contemporaries. For example, he created a very elaborate interior for a hall of the Ca'Rezzonico in Venice, today called Brustolon Hall.

Estimate: 2.000 € - 3.000 €; Hammer: 5.500 €
