PORCELAIN PAINTING OF BOYS PLAYING DICE GAME.

KPM. Berlin.

Date: 19th century.

Maker/Designer: After a painting by Bartolomé Esteban Murillo.

Technique: Porcelain, decorated with color.

Description: Three boys in front of a rocky wall. Two of them sit on the ground and play dice on a stone for coins. Another stands with a dog next to them, his gaze turned to the viewer as he bites into a fruit.

Signed 'Brödel' on the lower right. Alfred Brödel (1861 - 1927) trained at KPM Berlin, for which he then worked as a porcelain painter. He was also active in Lichte near Wallendorf and Schwarzburg-Rudolstadt (both Thuringia).

Measurement: Plate size 14,5x21cm, frame size 31,5x38 cm.

Mark: Impressed scepter mark with K.P.M. Year letter somewhat indistinct, possibly B for 1902 or P for 1915.

The original painting by Murillo was made around 1675/80 and is now at the Bayerische Staatsgemäldesammlungen - Alte Pinakothek in Munich.

Estimate: 1.600 € - 1.800 €
