MAURER, DORA
1937 Budapest

Title: "Négyzet kontra téglalap".

Subtitle: 2-part.

Date: 1986.

Technique: Acrylic on wood and coloured pencil on white painted beaverboard.

Measurement: Each: 100 x 100cm.

Notation: Each signed, dated and titled verso upper right: MAURER 1986 NÉGYZET KONTRA TÉGLALAP. Here additionally inscribed: A resp. B as well as each equipped with two labels with work details.

Provenance:

- Private collection Southern Germany (directly from the artist)

- Considered an important representative of the Hungarian neo-avant-garde and a central figure in contemporary concrete art
- Her work plays with perspective distortions of geometric forms that question the viewer's usual patterns of perception
- Tate Modern in London dedicated a major retrospective to the influential artist in 2021.

Estimate: 30.000 € - 50.000 €; Hammer: 110.000 €
