- Impressive early work of the important and pioneering representative of the German Informel
- From being privately owned for many years now for the first time offered on the international art market again
- Painted in 1960 during his stay at the Villa Massimo in Rome, where he met Cy Twombly, who had a lasting influence on him
- The use of the script-like signs already foreshadows the important series of works of the famous "Briefbilder".

Estimate: 25.000 € - 35.000 €, Hammer: 38.000 €
