- One of the most important French post-war artists who coined the term "Art Brut"
- Our work marks the beginning of the "Hourloupe" series, his most important phase of work with the typical puzzle-like figures
- From the late 1960s onwards, the "Hourloupe" phase produced sculptures that made the artist world famous

- Highly elaborate collage work from the artist's most sought-after creative period
- Absolute museum quality.

Estimate: 500.000 € - 700.000 €; Hammer: 450.000 €
