".when I was a painter I would work on a single image, because that's what you do. But when I got into photography I had the liberty of not using a single image. I'm not sure how I made that leap. I have a hard time with a single image because, in my mind, it's like one truth. And I'm always thinking, 'well, on the other hand there is this.'"

John Baldessari interview with James Welling, Parkett no. 86, 2009.
