"That the word 'monster' resonates in monstrare, the Latin word for 'to show', is probably more than a coincidence, and the world von Bonin serves up is indeed monstrous with its outsized mushrooms, rockets, and octopuses that look as if they had just escaped from an old-fashioned Jules Vernes film adaptation, not to mention the gigantic, floppy stuffed animals and her soft pictures or 'rags,' as she calls them."

Dirk von Lowtzow, Parkett no. 81, 2007.
