"Today, while many interesting painters are exploring the cusp between abstraction and the image, Katharina Grosse is holding the line for abstraction. But unlike so much contemporary abstraction, hers is untouched by nostalgia for the utopian certainties that motivated the pioneers. Her art looks forward, but unlike that of the great modernists, it doesn't define the end towards which it aims."

Barry Schwabsky, Parkett no. 100/101, 2017.
