With Parkett magazine.

"If the 'aesthetic regime' of art since modernism is distinguished by art's refusal to observe the boundary between it and anything else, here the artwork invokes its primordial role of magical or cult object both as phantasmatic origin and in its role of being a kitsch commodity with no use, the sheer arbitrariness which is the contemporary state of the art object's 'aura.' "

Marina Vishmidt, Parkett no. 89, 2011.
