

Lot 23

Auction Decorative Art

Date 15.11.2023, ca. 11:17

Preview 10.11.2023 - 10:00:00 bis
13.11.2023 - 18:00:00

LARGE POTOURRI-VASE WITH APPLIED BLOSSOMS AND GALLANTRY.

Meissen.

Maker/Designer: Model J. J. Kaendler, 1760.

Technique: Porcelain, painted in colours.

Description: The form at the bulge receded once and with mounted foot. At the sides two tendril-like handles that themselves are adorned with tendrils and blossoms. The lit with open work and sitting on a rich bouquet of flowers. On the foot and below the handle adorned with figures, once depicting a putto who is decorating the vase with flowers and a woman who is putting a basket of flowers at the feet of the vase. On the obverses scenes from Watteau in a park landscape and opposed painting of flowers. All around the paintings opulent fruit and clossom decorations, on the sides with minor flower paintings and the base with Rocaille adornments.

Measurement: Height bottom 37cm, height top 27cm.

Mark: Swordsmark, painted blue under glaze.

Estimate: 2.000 € - 3.000 €; Hammer: 5.500 €

