

Lot 61

Auction Decorative Art

Date 15.11.2023, ca. 11:45

Preview 10.11.2023 - 10:00:00 bis
13.11.2023 - 18:00:00

PAIR OF OCTOGONAL PORCELAIN PLATES WITH WATTEAU SCENES AND FLOWER PAINTINGS.

Meissen.

Date: 18th cent.

Technique: Porcelain, painted in colours and gold.

Description: In the centre of the mirror one large, at the rim of the plate four minor cartouches. In these paintings of galant couple in the park. At the rim between two cartouches each flower painting. Minor scattered flowers in the centres of the plate.

Measurement: ø 22,5cm.

Mark: Swords mark, painted in blue under the glaze. No. 22.

Provenance:

Private collection Cologne

Literature:

- Eikermann, Renate/Bayerisches Nationalmuseum, Stiftung Ernst Schneider in Schloß Lustheim, Meißener Porzellan des 18. Jahrhunderts, Munich 2004. One bowl with comparable decorative figures ill. 108, p. 283.

- Bastian, Jaques, Strasbourg Faiences et porcelaines, 1721- 1784, Strasbourg 2002, one platter with similar decorative cartouches and flowers painted in graduated colours, ill. 79, p. 108.

- Brattig, Patricia, Meissen Barockes Porzellan, Cologne 2010. One handle platter with similar decorative flowers, ill. 249, p. 419.

Estimate: 2.500 € - 3.000 €; Hammer: 2.400 €

