

Lot 119

Auction Decorative Art

Date 15.11.2023, ca. 12:27

Preview 10.11.2023 - 10:00:00 bis
13.11.2023 - 18:00:00

TWO POTTERY SOLDIER FIGURES.

Origin: China.

Dynasty: Eastern Wei-dynasty.

Date: 534-550.

Technique: Beige tone with remains of polychromed glaze.

Description: Two upright standing figures that each hold an erected shield in front of them in their left hand. In their right hand they probably held a sword once. Both are wearing armor as well as helmets with long side flap common at that time.

Measurement: Hight each ca. 48cm.

Certificate:

Thermoluminescence test no. C 199y54 Oxford Authentication Ltd. for one of the figures from 1999, present original. The dating coincides the resukts of the thermoluminiscence test.

Provenance:

Private collection North Rhine-Westphalia, purchased Kunsthandel Priestley & Ferraro, London.

Estimate: 3.000 € - 5.000 €; Hammer: 3.500 €

