

Lot 374

Auction Decorative Art

Date 15.11.2023, ca. 16:25

Preview 10.11.2023 - 10:00:00 bis
13.11.2023 - 18:00:00

ALLEGORY PORCELAIN OF TASTE FROM THE SERIES "THE FIVE SENSES" ("DIE FÜNF SINNE").

Meissen.

Date: Before 1924.

Maker/Designer: Model J. F. Eberlein.

Technique: Porcelain, painted golden and in colours.

Description: Standing on a rocaille base at a column, the allegory of the sense of taste. In her left hand an apple, in the right holding a monkey on a leash. The monkey sits on the column and eats another apple, which it has taken from the bowl in front of it. At the feet of the goddess a putto as allegorical device, with soup bowl. On the pedestal a piece of ham and in a rocaille a mouth.

Measurement: Height 28,5cm.

Mark: Swords mark, painted blue under glaze.

Estimate: 1.800 € - 2.000 €

