

Lot 383

Auction Decorative Art

Date 15.11.2023, ca. 16:32

Preview 10.11.2023 - 10:00:00 bis
13.11.2023 - 18:00:00

SERIES OF PORCELAIN FIGURINES OF CHILDREN ENSEMBLES OF THE 'FOUR ELEMENTS'.

Meissen.

Date: Three times 1957, once 1966.

Maker/Designer: Model J. J. Kaendler.

Technique: Porcelain, painted sparingly in colours and golden.

Description: Air depicted as a child with a large birdcage, windswept hair and bellows at his feet.

Earth depicted as a child gardener with rake, trellis and two rose trees. Water depicted as a child with fish, net and lobster in a trap. Fire depicted as a child at a small cooker, with a tea pot on the hearth and a chocolate pot on a small table. All figures on rocaille bases and with different coloured tunics.

Measurement: Height 10-13cm.

Mark: Swords mark, painted blue under glaze. Different model numbers, painter's numbers and porcelain former's numbers.

Estimate: 1.200 € - 1.500 €; Hammer: 1.000 €

