

Lot 554

Auction Decorative Art

Date 15.11.2023, ca. 18:39

Preview 10.11.2023 - 10:00:00 bis
13.11.2023 - 18:00:00

MARINE CHRONOMETER NO.615 MADE OF MAHOGANY, BONE, BRASS AND GLASS.

Hohwü, Andreas. Amsterdam

Date: Ca. 1865.

Technique: Box mahogany, bone, brass, glass a.o.

Description: Silver-plated dial with Roman numerals and spade hands. Under 12 o'clock, the auxiliary winding reserve indicator, above 6 o'clock, the auxiliary second hand. Brass-plated movement with 56-hour winding period, barrel with chain and fusee, Harrison winding reserve and Earnshaw escapement, compensated balance. The movement suspended with a brass gimbal, stabilised by a bajonet clasp. Back with covered winding hole. Three-storey mahogany case, inside once with glass cover.

Measurement: Box: 17,5x17x17cm.

Mark: Inscribed on dial.

Provenance:

Private collection Germany. Acquired at art dealer Mentink & Roest, Ingen.

Estimate: 4.000 € - 5.000 €; Hammer: 4.300 €

