

Lot 31

Auction VAN HAM Art Publications

Date 01.01.2030, ca. 18:00

Anisfeld, Boris Israelevich
1878 Bieltsy, Bessarabia/Russland - 1973 New London/Connecticut

Title: Boris Anisfeld - Catalogue raisonné.

Language: English / Russian.

Year of publ.: 2011.

Place of publ.: Düsseldorf.

Author: Olga Sugrobova-Roth and Eckart Lingenauber.

Publisher: Edition Libertars.

Format: 32 x 24cm.

Binding: Hardcover.

Extent: 303 pages, with colour illustrations throughout, some full-page. ill.

ISBN: 978-3-9812434-0-6

With this publication, Olga Sugrobova-Roth and Eckart Lingenauber dedicate themselves to the works of the Russian-American painter, graphic artist and stage designer Boris Anisfeld (1879 - 1973). His work is characterised by a strong tendency towards stylisation as well as by his preference for the exotic, preferably in the design of oriental motifs. Anisfeld's work was influenced by Art Nouveau and the aesthetic views of the artists' association Mir Iskusstva. His works hang in the Art Gallery Chicago and the Tretyakov Gallery in Moscow, among others.

Price: 59 €
