

Lot 555

Auction Works of Art & Art Nouveau

Date 16.05.2024, ca. 14:42

Preview 10.05.2024 - 10:00:00 bis
13.05.2024 - 18:00:00

CITES - No Export outside of the EU!

POMPOUS PENDULE WITH MUSICAL CLOCK ON CONSOLE.

France.

Date: 18th c.

Technique: Veneer in Furnier in bouble technique, tortoise shell and brass ornamentally inserted. Gilt bronze applications. Enamel cartouches.

Description: Richly arched form. The case is glazed in the front and at the sides sound outlets with fine grid. Richly decorated with Rocaille swings and mascarons. As finial figurine of the Victoria. At the lower glazed front, at the height of the musical clock, Mercury with various attributes. The dial with Roman hour cartouches and outer ring with Arabic minutes, above the VI day specification. Large rectangular verge movement with five columns, fusee and chain for movement and striking work. Horizontal hammer for half-hour chime on bright bell and strike on a deeper-sounding bell. Additional repeater movement on two additional bells. Silent lever next to the X of the dial. The musical clock with ten bells and twelve different tunes. Hourly release of the musical clock. Manual tune-switching by means of a lever on the left verso.

Measurement: Height ca. 140cm.

Enclosed: Pendulum & winder.

Estimate: 8.000 € - 10.000 €; Hammer: 8.000 €

