

Lot 640

Auction Works of Art & Art Nouveau

Date 16.05.2024, ca. 15:45

Preview 10.05.2024 - 10:00:00 bis
13.05.2024 - 18:00:00

CHAMPAGNE GLASS WITH APPLIED GLASS STONES AND CHRYSANTHEMUMS.

Gallé, Emile. Nancy.

Date: 1902.

Technique: Light yellowish glass, nodus and hot-applied glass stones with coloured powder inclusions, gold highlights.
Description: The mould with a flat chalice and nodus underneath, on a conical base. Etched decoration with gold highlights of chrysanthemum leaves and blossoms on the base and dome. Three hot-applied glass stones in green, red and orange as flower pistils.

Measurement: Height 11cm.

Mark: On the foot marked 'E. Gallé', etched and heightened with gold.

Literature:

Musée de l'école de Nancy (ed.), Émile Gallé et le verre - la collection du Musée de l'école de nancy, Paris 2014. Three comparable glasses p.86, ill.93/94.

Estimate: 1.100 € - 2.200 €; Hammer: 1.500 €

