SMALL OVERLAY GLASS VASE WITH 'BRONZE PHENOMENON' DECOR.

Loetz Witwe. Klostermühle.

Maker/Designer: Design 1900.

Technique: Overlay glass in light olive green. Vividly warped bands in silver-yellow and blue on the wall.

Description: The mould-blown shape protrudes slightly towards the top. Wide, colourless veined bands in silver-yellow on a light olive-green ground, irregularly combed. Reduced and iridescent to silver-yellow-bluish, so that it appears bronze-coloured in places on the ground.

Measurement: Height 25,1cm.

Mark: Signed on the bottom. "Loetz Austria", mat engraved.

Literature:

Ricke, Helmut (ed.), Löt. Bohemian glass 1880-1940. Vol.1, monograph of works. Düsseldorf 1989. The decor illustrated and described on p.135.

Estimate: 1.500 € - 2.500 €; Hammer: 1.600 €
