

Lot 682

Auction Works of Art & Art Nouveau

Date 16.05.2024, ca. 16:18

Preview 10.05.2024 - 10:00:00 bis
13.05.2024 - 18:00:00

---

SILVER TRAVELING SHRINE, SO-CALLED GA'U.

Origin: Tibet or Bhutan.

Technique: Silver, repoussé, fabric among other.

Description: Two-part, rectangular amulet container. The glazed, leaf-shaped altar window on the front is flanked by two opposing dragons in a drift, with a Mahakala head and an emblem of Lakshmi between them. Inside, a relief of the Buddha Akshobhya. In a coloured fabric bag with carrying strap.

Measurement: 12,5x15,5x5cm.

Provenance:

Private collection Rhineland-Palatinate.

Estimate: 800 € - 1.000 €

