LARGE PORCELAIN WOOD GROUSE.

Meissen.

Maker/Designer: Model Erich Oehme, 1938.

Technique: Porcelain, enriched in colours.

Description: Large figurine of a wood grouse on rectangular pedestral. The animal's tail feathers set up in impressive fan. The wood grouse itself is taking a step, slightly leaning forward and with opened beak. The wings are slightly brazed away from the body as if it would demonstrate his dominance towards another bird.

Measurement: 37x35x40cm.

Mark: Swords mark, painted blue under glaze. Verso inscr. '1938, Erich Oehme'. Model number O252, porcelain former's mark 141.

Some tail feathers restored.

Estimate: 3.000 € - 5.000 €; Hammer: 3.000 €
