The 1940s were a heyday for Breitling, and the Premier collection was synonymous with upmarket chronographs characterised by their versatility and stylish aesthetics. The Breitling Premier Doctor's Watch Ref. 777 was designed specifically for medical professionals who needed to take precise time measurements, particularly to determine a patient's heart or respiratory rate. This functionality was complemented by the unique scaling on the dial.

Vault watch, despite its age the watch is in excellent condition.
From the collection of an important Cologne watch connoisseur.
