PORCELAIN FIGURINE OF APOLLO AND DAPHNE.

Meissen.

Date: Before 1924.

Maker/Designer: Model C.G. Jüchtzer.

Technique: Porcelain, enriched in colours.

Description: The mountain nymph and virgin huntress Daphne and the immortally enamoured Apoll on a rectangular pedestal. She is about to turn into a laurel tree while the young god touches her on the hips with one finger.

Measurement: Height 36,5cm.

Mark: Swords mark, painted blue under the glaze. Model number I9, cameo mark 14c and painter's number 68.

The well-known motif from Ovid's Metamorphoses goes back to the life-size marble sculpture by Gian Lorenzo Bernini (1622-1625).

Estimate: 2.200 € - 3.200 €; Hammer: 3.000 €
