

Lot 59

Auction Works of Art & Art Nouveau

Date 12.11.2024, ca. 11:44

Preview 07.11.2024 - 10:00:00 bis
10.11.2024 - 18:00:00

FOUR PORCELAIN PLATES FROM THE SERVICE WITH A "PRUSSIAN-MUSICAL DESIGN" FOR FREDERICK THE GREAT.

Meissen.

Date: Ca. 1761/62.

Maker/Designer: Draft after drawings by Frederick II of Prussia; model presumably F.E. Meyer.

Technique: Porcelain, partially in relief, enriched in colours, golden decorated.

Description: The plates with a twelve-fold lobed rim and gold-toothed rim. Green scale decor below the rim, followed by six cartouches in flat relief. These with gold-highlighted rocaille frames and attributes of music, the military and astronomy within. Polychromatic flower bouquets and small butterflies in the centre of each plate.

Measurement: ø 26cm.

Mark: Swords mark, painted blue under glaze. Three plates with embossed number 22, one plate with embossed number 31.

Estimate: 2.000 € - 2.200 €; Hammer: 4.000 €

