PORCELAIN FIGURINE OF A TURKISH SULTANA.

Höchst.

Date: 1765-1796.

Maker/Designer: Draft Johann Peter Melchior.

Technique: Porcelain, enriched in colours, golden.

Description: A child figure dressed as a sultana on a grass-covered plinth. She is wearing puffy bloomers that merge into white stockings and pointed shoes with large buckles on her feet.

She wears a knee-length, fringed outer dress, a drapery as a belt and a lavish cloak gathered at the hips and shoulders. Her hair is pinned up and adorned with colourful ostrich feathers. She holds a dark mask in her right hand raised in front of her body and a golden fan in her left hand.

Measurement: Height 18cm.

Mark: Manufacture mark, painted blue under glaze.

The child figure of the sultana is complemented by the counterpart of the sultan. As a pair, they enjoy great popularity.

Literature:

Stahl, Patricia: Höchster Porzellan. Frankfurt a.M. 1994. The pair of Sultan & Sultana illustrated and described p.254, no.6.8.10.

Estimate: 700 € - 900 €; Hammer: 1.600 €
