

Lot 128

Auction Works of Art & Art Nouveau

Date 12.11.2024, ca. 12:36

Preview 07.11.2024 - 10:00:00 bis
10.11.2024 - 18:00:00

SMALL WOODEN JEWELLERY BOX WITH GALANT SCENES.

South Germany.

Date: Ca. 1700.

Maker/Designer: Presumably Augsburg.

Technique: Pear tree, silver foil, glass, colourful gouaches on paper, mirror glass and red silk.

Description: Rectangular form with lengthwise rectangular glassed casket fields. The framing with finials carved, geometrical pattern, clad with silver foil. In the rectangular fields delicate depictions with park landscapes and courtly societies. The underside is covered with stamped and gilt paper. On the inside with lined with red silk, on the left side a jewellery retainer lined with green velvet. On the inside of the lid inset mirror.

Measurement: 10x17x12cm.

Large pieces of silver foil flaked off and lost.

Provenance:

Private collection Munich.

Estimate: 500 € - 700 €; Hammer: 350 €

