

Lot 131

Auction Works of Art & Art Nouveau

Date 12.11.2024, ca. 12:38

Preview 07.11.2024 - 10:00:00 bis
10.11.2024 - 18:00:00

HEXAGONAL PORCELAIN TEA CADDY WITH 'INDIAN' FLOWERS AND STADLER CHINESE.

Meissen.

Date: Ca. 1730/35.

Maker/Designer: Decor J. E. Stadler.

Technique: Porcelain, enriched in colours.

Description: Fine paintings of 'Indian' flower tendrils extending across the sides of the picture on five of the six display sides. On one display side a large Chinese figure on a grey plinth, which extends over the surrounding two wall panels. A flag at his back. A flying bird at his head. The corresponding lid with ornamentation and cut 'Indian' flowers on the wall. The top with a small Indian flower and two iron-red rings.

Measurement: Height 12,5cm.

Mark: Swords mark, overglaze blue.

Provenance:

Saxon private collection

Literature:

Eikermann, Renate: Meißner Porzellan des 18. Jahrhunderts im Schloss Lustheim, Munich 2004. A vase with 'Indian' flowers and stadler Chinese, p.131.

Estimate: 2.500 € - 3.500 €; Hammer: 2.000 €

