PORCELAIN PLATE WITH LOBSTER DECOR.

Meissen.

Date: Ca. 1730/35.

Technique: Porcelain, enriched in colours.

Description: In the centre of the mirror an underglaze-blue flowering shrub, in the throat red peony blossoms on a celadon ground with 'Indian' flowers. Opposite each other in the reserves are black and red lobsters. Three 'Indian' flowers on the rim. The rim with a lattice border in underglaze-blue.

The so-called lobster decor follows a Chinese model of the "famille verte" from the early 18th century.
