PAIR OF OCTAGONAL DOUBLE-HANDLED PORCELAIN CUPS.

Meissen.

Date: Ca. 1730/35.

Technique: Porcelain, enriched in colours.

Description: The octagonal mould on a round foot and the cups each with two curved handles. The walls are decorated with kakiemon decor in bright overglaze colours with sprigs of peonies and chrysanthemums. A flower branch in the centre of each cup. The rim of the cup is painted in brown. An iron-red arrowhead decor is painted on the handle of one of the two cups.

Although the two cups are decorated differently, they were once part of the same service.

Measurement: Height 5/5cm.

Mark: Swords mark, painted blue under glaze. Cameo mark with two parallel lines.

Provenance:

Bavarian private collection.

Estimate: 500 € - 700 €; Hammer: 400 €
