PORCELAIN TEA MUG WITH TABLE DECOR AND SMALL TEA BOWL WITH KAKIEMON DECOR.

Meissen.

Date: Ca. 1730/40 resp. 1774.

Technique: Porcelain, painted blue under glaze and enriched in colours, partially golden.

Description: The tea cup with the so-called 'Tischchenmuster-Dekor', introduced by Höroldt in 1732, which shows a small table and a vase in the centre of the wall, depicted in underglaze blue decor. Magnificent branches with peonies and chrysanthemums sprout from these, depicted in bright onglaze colours.

A motif was presumably isolated from the Imari decor, which originally depicted a trellis with flowering shrubs.

The small bowl has a bulging shape and over-decorated flowers all round, some of which are accentuated with gold.

Measurement: Height 7/4cm.

Mark: Swords mark painted blue under glaze, once with Marcollini star. Cameo mark.

Provenance:

Bavarian private collection.

Estimate: 400 € - 600 €; Hammer: 400 €
