The SUSI POP label produced a so-called "Coverversion" (cover version) of the painting "Das Floß der Medusa" by Théodore Géricault in its typical style as a silk screen in the colour "magenta". The cover versions of important works of art form a separate production line in SUSI POP's oeuvre. There are always two copies of SUSI POP's adaptations and interpretations. One copy is kept by SUSI POP and for exhibitions, while the second copy, consisting of 136 individual pictures, is given to supporters as a thank-you gift.

SUSI POP claims to be neither an artist nor a group behind the name. SUSI POP is best described as a "label" or "brand".
