

Lot 107

Auction Works of Art & Art Nouveau

Date 15.05.2025, ca. 12:20

Preview 09.05.2025 - 10:00:00 bis
12.05.2025 - 18:00:00

WOODEN MUSEUM CUPBOARD WITH HUNTING SCENE.

Schleswig-Holstein.

Date: Ca. 1760.

Technique: Walnut, king wood, birch, leg amongst others veneered and inlaid, partially gold-plated.

Description: High rectangular body with a cracked pediment and a wide drawer in the base. Pediment and drawer with female nudes and inlaid foliate scrolls. Pilasters in the centre of the two-door front and on the chamfered corners. Their gilded capitals with mascarons of a hunter, the hunting goddess Diana and a wild boar. The curved panels at the top are finished with gold-plated ornaments. Below, hunting scenes with stag and wild boar hunting between inlaid trees and framed by fruit festoons and leaf tendrils respectively.

Measurement: 260x182x76cm.

Pedestal drawer restored.

Enclosed: Key.

Provenance:

Private collection Münsterland

Literature:

Kreisel, Heinrich: Die Kunst des Deutschen Möbels, Vol. 2, Munich 1970. For the type see Ill. 848. Here a cabinet with the same features from the collection of the Schleswig-Holsteinisches Landesmuseum, Gottorp Castle.

Estimate: 15.000 € - 20.000 €
